She lived thru tough times
Depression; War.
She answered the call:
She went to work;
She built ships
After the Depression,
She was left with Grit;
After the War,
She was left with steel.

When she loved us
She loved us
With the determination
That won the war
She fought on for us
She soldiered thru obstacles
That would have crushed others.

She made us smile.
She told her stories
She expressed her opinions
Strongly
She expressed her beliefs
Strongly

She never feared death
Because she so wanted Heaven
She loves her Lord;
Was so eager to meet Him

Now she stands in His Presence
While all of Heaven celebrates
Her war finally over;
The Victory hers.
