Subject: Lesson Learned

We started killing our own children
Before they saw the sun
Before they took a breath
Over the years
We killed millions.

The children who survived
Our selfishness
Surprise us
They kill each other
One on one
Or in mass slayings.

We are so shocked
Asking ourselves
Where did they Learn
To take lives
So callously?
